- b) Event Type : External
- c) Event Mode : Offline
- d) Event Theme : Ideas@75
- e) Event Date : 28.06.2023
- f) Event Photographs :

g) Brief Description of the Event :

The school children were engaged in a painting activity on paper pulp masks which was a fun and educational way to teach them about recycling. By using paper pulp, which is made from recycled paper, children witnessed firsthand how waste materials can be transformed into something new and useful. They learned about the importance of reducing waste and conserving resources.

During the activity, children painted the masks with vibrant colors and creative designs, expressing their individuality and imagination. This process encourages them to think creatively while understanding the value of repurposing materials. Additionally, we discussed the significance of recycling, emphasizing the environmental benefits of reducing landfill waste and conserving energy.

Through this activity, children not only gained artistic skills but also developed an awareness and appreciation for sustainable practices. They learn to make conscious choices and actively contribute to a greener future. Painting on paper pulp masks provided a practical and hands-on experience that fosters a sense of responsibility towards the environment among young learners.
