You give me clean water, I will give you an awakened life.

"CMPDI installed a water filter in Amarkantak"

Regional Institute V is working for SECL. There is a team of outstanding intellectuals who have been meritorious in the best institutions of the nation. There are many experienced engineers and other officers, employees with vast experience in various fields of mining are also posted, Environment Department of Institute 5 and its laboratories, Sustainable Services Are ready for From time to time, works are also done for public welfare through social responsibility and other programs by Regional Institute V.

Yogiraj Dispensary at Amarkantak is dedicated to free medical services. The arrangement of clean drinking water for the beneficiaries of this dispensary has been done under the scheme "Azadi Ke Amrit Mahotsav" on the instructions of Mr. Indra Dev Narayan, Regional Director of Regional Institute V.

According to mythological legends, after Amarkantak, Kailash and Kashi, Devadhidev Shankar ji's residence along with his family is considered to be the place where the Kalchuri kings also built temples in the 10th century. Amarkantak is the origin of Narmada, Son and Johila. Amarkantak is a unique place of religiosity and spirituality. Mahakavi Kalidas has written in Meghdoot that in Amrakoot whose Apabhramsa is Amarkantak, deities come to roam in the form of human beings. Amarkantak is a combination of Vindhya and Satpura mountain ranges, but its base is the mountain range of Maikal.

Narmada is also called Mekalsuta due to its origin from Maikal mountain, it is also the lifeline of Madhya Pradesh. "Tirth" is also the inspiration of our national unity and nationalism.

3. CSR schemes amounting to 2.25 crore launched during Amrit Mahotsav

Hon'ble MP, Sidhi-Singrauli inaugurated public welfare schemes

NCL is playing an important role in the development of Singrauli with sensitivity - Smt. Riti Pathak

Northern Coalfields Limited (NCL), a Miniratna company of the Government of India, on Thursday launched several schemes related to infrastructure, education, skills, employment, clean drinking water during the Amrit Mahotsav of India under CSR. These schemes were launched and inaugurated by Hon'ble MP Sidhi-Singrauli Smt. Riti Pathak.

During the program Smt. Riti Pathak while appreciating the work done under NCL CSR in the overall development of NCL Zone said that the company looks forward to the development of the local community with utmost sensitivity. He appreciated the efforts of NCL in the direction of skill development, cleanliness and women empowerment and expressed confidence that the public welfare activities of the company would continue in future also.

On this occasion, Hon'ble MP Sidhi-Singrauli Smt. Riti Pathak inaugurated the road at a cost of 1.6 crores in the Semuar Panchayat. With the construction of this road, about 10000 people living in Pali, Semur and nearby villages will be benefitted.

Sewing machines distributed with training certificate. In this sequence, Smt. Pathak distributed certificates and sewing machines to 27 girls who had taken training in the ongoing sewing training center under the skill development program of NCL with the aim of making local women/girls self-reliant. He encouraged all the girls for self-employment and appreciated the efforts of NCL in the direction of women's skill development and livelihood generation.

In this episode of the program, water coolers with 4 ROs were given to ensure the provision of clean drinking water for the school going children. With this, clean drinking water will be accessible to more than 1000 students.

In order to ensure the provision of modern education in remote villages, NCL has distributed eight sets of smart TVs with computers to the schools located in eight panchayats. With this scheme, children of government schools will be given education through smart classes and they will also be able to get basic knowledge of computers.

In this sequence, mats, play school slides, utensils (plates, glasses and spoons) were also distributed to the children studying in 43 Anganwadi located in 10 panchayats of Singrauli district. Along with this, school bags and shoes were distributed among the children of four government schools. Not only this, advanced laboratory equipment was also distributed in 4 government schools, so that more than 500 students would get practical knowledge of science.

Garbage pickup vehicle given to Naudia for clean Singrauli

On this occasion Smt. Riti Pathak and Hon'ble MLA Chitrangi Shri Amar Singh flagged off the garbage collection vehicle and handed it over to the representative of Naudia Panchayat. This vehicle will go door to door collecting wet and dry waste separately. With the help of this vehicle, proper management of waste will be ensured in Naudia residential settlement and more than 5000 people living there will get clean environment.

Inauguration of boundary wall of government school

In the sequel of the program, Mrs. Pathak inaugurated the 525 meter boundary wall of the school located in village Bhowdar at a cost of 30 lakhs. With this construction work, about 200 students will get a safe campus for playing and other activities.

In this episode, Hon'ble MPs, MLAs and other public representatives also visited the Khadi and Handloom Center set up by NCL. This center has been set up with the help of NCL-IIT BHU Incubation Center in which about 30 women are becoming self-reliant by getting employment from Khadi.
