With significant visibility and reach of Project CCDP-Utthan in the operational areas of MCL command areas. With the intervention of BAIF in the lives of farmers, there is a sizable and manifold increase in the product. To this end, to facilitate the ease of doing business, a training programme was undertaken targeting the farmers. Ms. Pragati Gokhle former Principal Scientist MSME, Government of India & Chief Mentor, Mission Mera Mobile Mera Marketing via Market mirchi imparted training to farmers from Sambalpur, Angul, Sudargarh & Jharshuguda districts. Around three hundred farmers with mobile phones participated in the digital marketing programme. Market mirchi is a simple farmer-friendly mobile app helpful in the capacity building of farmers, creating avenues for the farmers to sell their produce directly to the interested buyers and vice-versa. The program has been organized at the Gram panchayat office with the active involvement of Panchayat representatives with the objective of spreading the message to a wider farmer base. The mission of CCDP – Utthan for sustainable income generation of farmers can be catalyzed with an integrated approach of appropriate technology adoption, better farming practice, market accessibility & digital marketing.
