Be it food packets, toys, storage packing, furniture or electronic items, plastics are so widely used that imagining our lives without them is impossible. It is one of the best substitutes for wood, thus reducing the cutting of trees and helping the environment. On the other hand, sometimes it poses problems too, for example: when it comes to their disposal. Upon usage, artefacts made from plastic sustain wear and tear and become brittle, so it is necessary to dispose of. MCL Headquarters has conducted plantation drive & quiz competition at Govt. Women's College in Sambalpur. They were encouraged to incorporate environment-friendly habits in their lifestyle and discourage unclean and unhygienic practices that also contribute to various forms of pollution. The students were later felicitated with prizes for participation and winning in the competitions. A total of 100 students took part in the quiz competition and about 30 students took part in the plantation drive.
