She started the All India Solo Cycle Tour of 25000 Kms. to promote awareness about Women Security, Woman Empowerment, Health and Environment among people. After covering 10650 Kms in 11 states, she entered Jharkhand traversing towards eastern India. While crossing Ranchi, her bicycle broke down and she was in deep trouble. The coverage of West Bengal, Sikkim, Assam, Manipur, Nagaland etc. is still due.

On her request to provide her with a new bicycle so as to enable her to complete her tour, CCL was approached by the Director, Sports and Youth Affairs for support.

For supporting women sports persons in disseminating awareness about Woman Security, Woman Empowerment, Health and Environment, CCL management is providing a brand new bicycle as per her requirement.

The proposal was given due importance at CCL and looking at the emergency, it was processed and approved by the Competent Authority. Today, we shall be handing over the bicycle to Miss Asha Malviya and hoping that this small contribution from CCL helps her complete her solo tour and continue her future endeavors for the society

The meeting was presided over by the chairman of the committee and CMD of BCCL, Mr. Samiran Dutta. At the beginning of the meeting General Manager (Personnel and Official Language) Mr. Bidyut Saha while giving a formal address thanked everyone for their continuous cooperation and also presented the details of various programs and activities carried out by the Department of Official Language. While addressing the meeting, in his presidential address, CMD Mr. Samiran Dutta said that all the programs and activities related to the implementation of official language in BCCL are happening on schedule, it is a matter of pleasure. We should train our students from time to time for noting and drafting in Hindi. Hindi language should be compulsorily used in all communication and publicity material of BCCL. The condition of Hindi correspondence in the company is encouraging but still we should be determined to do better continuously. Addressing the occasion, Director (Personnel) Shri Murali Krishna Ramaiah said that official language competitions should be organized at the regional level as well as at the headquarters. Going beyond the implementation of the official language in the official work of BCCL, we should also encourage the propagation of Hindi among the children of different schools of Dhanbad. Children are the foundation and trust of any society and country. We should go among the children and organize Hindi competitions and activities and create interest in them towards Hindi. In the meeting, Hindi implementation was reviewed for the October-December quarter at Koyla Bhawan Headquarters and all areas of BCCL. During this period, the Lodna area at the regional level and the Manpower and Planning Department at the departmental level were honored with Chal Vijayanti Shield for better implementation of official language. In the meeting, it was decided to organize essay competitions and self-composed poetry competitions in the next quarter. A poetry collection named 'BCCL ke Kavi' will also be published by including the poems of all the poets who read their poems in the poetry competition. The meeting was conducted and the vote of thanks was done by Manager (Official Language) Mr. Dilip Kumar Singh. All the Heads of Departments of Koyla Bhawan Headquarters and regional heads of all regions of BCCL were present in this meeting.

Renovation of 9 Rural Schools by NGO Siksha Vikas Parishad in Silchar, Assam: Transforming Education in Rural Communities

The NGO Siksha Vikas Parishad in Silchar, Assam, has taken a commendable step towards transforming education in rural areas by renovating 9 schools. These schools, located in remote villages, were in dire need of repair and refurbishment to provide a conducive learning environment for the students. The renovation initiative undertaken by Siksha Vikas Parishad has breathed new life into these schools, positively impacting the education and lives of countless children.

The renovation project included repairing and painting classrooms, upgrading sanitation facilities, providing clean drinking water, and improving the overall infrastructure of the schools. Dilapidated walls were given a fresh coat of paint, broken windows were replaced, and damaged roofs were repaired. Sanitation facilities were revamped with proper toilets and handwashing stations to promote hygiene and sanitation practices among the students. Clean drinking water facilities were installed to ensure access to safe drinking water.

The impact of these renovations on the students and the communities has been significant. The newly renovated schools have become a hub of learning, where students are motivated to attend regularly and actively participate in classroom activities. The improved infrastructure has created a safe and conducive learning environment, which has boosted the students' morale and enthusiasm towards education.

Furthermore, the renovation of these schools has also positively impacted the communities around them. The villagers now have improved access to education for their children, which has increased awareness about the importance of education and encouraged more students to enroll in schools. The schools have become a focal point for community engagement, with parents and local stakeholders taking an active interest in the schools' activities and development.

The NGO Siksha Vikas Parishad's commendable initiative in renovating 9 schools in rural areas of Silchar, Assam, has brought about a transformative change in the education landscape of these communities. It has not only improved the infrastructure of the schools but has also uplifted the morale and enthusiasm of the students towards education. The ripple effect of this renovation project is evident in the increased community engagement and awareness about the importance of education. It is a testament to the power of collective efforts in bringing positive change and uplifting the lives of rural communities through education.
