g) Brief Description of the event :

CIL together with ISKCON organised health check up camp for the villagers residing in and around a suburban area of Kolkata. A total of 100 villagers benefitted from the camp where ENT Doctor, General physician and medicines were also distributed in the camp. These camps aim to provide essential healthcare facilities, including medical check-ups, diagnostic tests, and consultations, to individuals who may lack access to regular healthcare services. By organizing these camps, healthcare professionals and volunteers can offer preventive and curative services, address common ailments, and promote health education. These camps play a crucial role in improving the overall health and well-being of villagers, enabling early detection of diseases, and offering guidance on maintaining a healthy lifestyle. Ultimately, such health camps contribute to bridging the healthcare gap and empowering rural communities to lead healthier lives.
