g) Event Description :

Joy gets multiplied when shared. At Coal India, we have always believed that Sharing is Caring. One such organization which lies close to this belief system is Alakendu Bodh Niketan Residential Institution located in Kankurgachi, Kolkata which is recognised by the Government of India as an institution for care, treatment, education and rehabilitation of specially abled children. Running for four decades now, today, Alakendu Bodh Niketan has become a safe haven for such innocent children where they get warmth, acceptance, proper care and are imbibed with the spirit of self respect and self-reliance.

Presently, the institution is providing day care facility to 145 children and residential facility for 85 children who are taken care of by a dedicated team of teachers, nurses and doctors; they are trained for different handicrafts, yoga, singing and dancing. Their special abilities are nurtured beautifully by the members to bring out the best in them. Coal India Limited is associated with such organizations through several CSR and Welfare activities. Under AKAM CIL supported the organisation by distributing 5 nos. of CP Chairs for the children of the home.
